Call for Manuscripts SRATE Journal Volume 29(1)

The SRATE Journal is a peer-reviewed publication of the Southeastern Regional Association of Teacher Educators. The mission of the SRATE Journal is dissemination of scholarship and research related to the profession of teaching with an emphasis on teacher preparation. The journal is published twice yearly using thematic and non-thematic formats and indexed by ERIC.

The theme for the 2019 conference in St. Augustine, Florida is:

Closing the parity gap (It's complicated): Collaboration, Recruitment and Retention

You are invited to submit a theme-based paper for possible inclusion in the next issue of the Southeastern Regional Association of Teacher Educators' journal, SRATE, housed in the Department of Teaching and Learning, College of Education, Austin Peay State University.

We invite submissions that focus on the concept of parity as it relates to education. Areas of interest surrounding parity might include but are not limited to rural versus urban schools; STEM education; diversity or equity in the classroom; gender; teacher salaries and employment opportunities; or, leadership or administrative roles.

All manuscripts must be original, unpublished works and directly relate to the 2019 conference theme. All submission will go through a blind peer-review process and manuscripts not related to the theme will not be considered.

Submission Guidelines
