

Southeastern Regional Association of Teacher Educators

Roy L. Lauter Distinguished Service Award

The Roy L. Lauter Distinguished Service Award is presented to a person who has demonstrated a documented history of contribution to SRATE and teacher education within the SRATE region. The award was established to honor Roy Lauter for his many years of distinguished service to SRATE as executive director, board member, president and past-president, and member of the association and to establish an annual award to recognize persons who have made cumulative significant contributions to SRATE over a period of at least 10 years for their service to the organization and their contributions to teacher education in the SRATE region.

A potential recipient of the Roy L. Lauter Distinguished Service Award should meet the following criteria:

- leadership roles within SRATE that may, but not necessarily, include serving as SRATE President;
- leadership roles within their state ATE affiliate as well as other contributions to teacher education;
- service to SRATE that includes at least a ten-year period and for those individuals who have served as President must include significant contribution after her/his tenure as President and/or significant contribution prior to tenure as President.
